City Taken by Rebels One of Largest in Northern Mexico—Population 40,000

AGUA PRIETA, April 30.—Chihuahua City, capital of the state of the same name, is definitely in the hands of the revolutionists, it was announced by General P. Elias Casas tonight. Chihuahua City is one of the largest cities in Northern Mexico, and has a population of approximately 40,000.

del Arco, former federal commander who deserted with their troops.

Telegraphic communication was established between Chihuahua City, Hermosillo and military headquarters here shortly after 7 o'clock tonight. General Calles said he was in direct communication with General Enriquez.

Washington Receives Reports

Washington, April 30.—Americans doing business in the state of Sonora and other parts of Mexico controlled by the revolutionists have been authorized to pay taxes and customs to the de facto authorities.

This authorization it was explained today at the state depart-organized principle of international law and does not amount to recognition of a de facto government. The principle has been observed on several occasions in Mexico, notably when the Carranza revolution started and his forces obtained control of ports.

The state department received an exhaustive report today on conditions in Vera Cruz from an American in that city. The report

Official advices today from various parts of Mexico indicate a steady growth of the revolutionary movement and rapid co-ordination with the Sonora revolt of many rebel bands. The possibility of General Obregon taking the Mexico City was forecast in reports which said the rebels of Michoacan, Guerrero and Morelos declared themselves a unit of the Sonora army.

An Oklahoma oil magnate to show his gratitude presented an $82,000 home to a physician who had served his family well. The gift was princely but it will have its disadvantages unless the new owner is already equipped with a goodly sum for the payment of tax and maintenance expenses. It would break up the average man to keep such a home going.

Print Paper.

The shortage of paper makes publishers weep, and prices, they say, still higher each week. The publisher's legging around in the mart; the publisher's begging, with aches in his heart; for paper imploring, he's down on his knees; and prices are soaring like kites in the breeze. And Uncle Sam's printers use paper as junk; through summers and winters the documents punk that no one confesses to reading. I, too, come forth from the press as mountains of red ink. Uncle Sam's spilling the paper we need for news hot and boiling, the stuff we would read. He's blowing the boodle on volumes of slush, on endless flapdoodle that's not worth a rush. His basements are crowded—admit it he must—with printed stuff shrouded in cobwebs and dust. "Reports" and such litter are these by the stack; it makes a man bitter, sends pains up his back. And new stacks are added to them every day—big tomes that are padded with buncombe and whey. His presses are creaking, they groan and complain, with publishers shrieking for paper in vain.

STRONG FOR AMERICANISM

"The primaries in Georgia, as in no other State thus far, furnished the means for testing the sentiment of the people on the league of nations. The voters had their choice between the unqualified internationalism of Palmer, the modified internationalism of Smith, and the anti-inter-nationalism of Watson. The returns demonstrated that the people of Georgia, one of the strongholds of Democracy, have no use for the surrender policy of Wilson, and by a vote practically two to one have recorded their emphatic adherence to Americanism as they have known it from the beginning. not only has there been such a wave of protest against the British-Wilsonian league, but the count shows that practically a third of the people want no league at all.

"The same deep resentment against future foreign embroilments is reflected in the figures that come in from other states where primaries have been held. Senator Johnson is the embodiment of the anti-league doctrine, and in his every speech has emphasized his unalterable opposition not only to the Wilson brand of league but to any league. Every voter who has cast a ballot in any of the states where Mr. Johnson's name has appeared on the ticket was intelligent enough to know that a vote for Mr. Johnson was a vote against America's participation in any sort of a league of nations. The balloting in Michigan, Illinois and Nebraska shows how widely the Johnson brand of uncompromising Americanism has taken hold of the people. Coupled with the remarkable stand of the people of Georgia, it proves that the voters of country, regardless of party, are ready to repudiate any candidate who has the temerity to keep before the nation the doctrine of internationalism with which they have been menaced for over a year.

THE RED CROSS AND PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE

The United States Public Health Service, which includes examination and treatment free of charge, has been extensively organized for the benefit of disabled service men.

The American Red Cross co-operates with the government in getting this information to all disabled or ill ex-service men, and in inducing them to accept the government's provisions for their care and treatment.

The local Home Service secretary of the Red Cross will gladly assist men in getting in touch with the proper examining physician and authorities. These physicians make diagnoses and recommendations for occupational or social treatment, as well as advice concerning the man's physical condition, as there are many nervous cases resulting from shell shock or other nervous afflictions. One of the greatest tasks of the Public Health Service is the handling of neuroathetic cases. Most of these are not of the nature which require institutional care, but the patients return constantly to the Red Cross saying that they are not receiving proper treatment. Many have been examined by specialists and no physical reason can be found for their particular complaints. Physiological treatment is therefore needed for these cases, with encouragement and sympathetic understanding.

Among the Public Health Service hospitals are those given especially to the treatment of nervous and mental disorders, one of which is located in our own division at Waukesha, Wisconsin.

The Red Cross is represented in all Public Health Service hospitals thru direct Social Service Workers or the Home Service Station of the local chapter, and in every instance stands ready to shield and assist the patient and his family.

The headquarters of the Morgan County Chapter American Red Cross are located in the Public Library, Jacksonville, Illinois. Phone 1598; Bell, 116.

LIVES UP TO HIS RECORD

D. E. Kennedy has long had a reputation for early oat seeding in Morgan county. This year is not an exception to the rule and altho the season has not been favorable, Mr. Kennedy completed the planting of 30 acres March 31. He has found thru years of experience that he gets the best returns from early planting. The acreage is much smaller than he usually plants in connection with his extensive farming operations, as this year a greater part of his land will be in corn.

TO SAVE LIVES OF ARMENIAN ORPHANS

Save the lives of 49 hungry, homeless Armenian orphans.

This is the task which Morgan county has set itself in the Near East Relief campaign to help take care of the 11,000 children facing starvation as Illinois' quota of the 250,000 who are in such dire need in that stricken country. Earl M. Spink is the chairman of the county committee, saving the campaign in charge, and he expects that when the final figures are in they will show that the county is over the top.

"Adopt an orphan" is the slogan of the campaign. The women's clubs of the state have taken a keen interest in this humanitarian work, and it is the hope of Mrs. Gertrude Parker, of Aurora, that every woman's club in Illinois will adopt at least one of these Armenian orphans that are now facing starvation. Mrs. Parker is state chairman of the women's division of the Near East Relief, and she points to the fact that it costs only $150 to take care of one of these homeless children for a year. The campaign is being conducted to reach the people thru the women's clubs, the churches, schools and lodges.

An announcement of interest to the workers in the campaign for human salvage has just been made by P. J. Byrne, executive secretary of the Near East Relief for Illinois. All who adopt these orphans, whether individual, woman's club, church or lodge, will know just where the orphans are located. Each state has been given its own orphanage in the Near East. The one allotted to Illinois is at Alexandropol. All the orphans adopted by the people of this state will be in the orphanage in that city. A typical Armenian orphan has been selected to represent each state. The one chosen for Illinois is "Henning." Photographs of this little child will be sent to the state that those who are aiding this human salvage work may have an ideal to work for.

In an appeal issued to the women of Illinois, Mrs. Parker, the state chairman, said: "The Near East Relief orphanages are saving thousands of children from terrible deaths. A happy, healthy childhood is in store for the young children out there in Armenia who survive this period of famine that they are now going thru, if the American woman comes to the rescue with her customary generosity."

TWO CARS WRECKED ON THE WABASH

Two Wabash freight cars were wrecked at a point about 100 feet east of the East street crossing early Friday morning. The cars were loaded with Reo and Dodge automobiles billed to Kansas City. The autos were badly damaged. An extra west bound train was passing on a side track when a brake beam dropped and the derailment followed.

A wrecker was sent from Springfield to clear up the track. Fortunately by the use of side tracks it was possible for traffic to continue even before the wrecker arrived. The accident happened about 3 o'clock Friday morning.

Stiff? Sore?

A lame back, a sore muscle or a stiff joint often is considered too lightly by the sufferer. It should be remembered that backache, rheumatic pains, stiffness, soreness, swellings and puffiness under the eyes are symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble—and these certainly should not be neglected.

Foley Kidney Pills

help the kidneys eliminate from the system the poisonous waste and acids that cause these aches and pains. They act promptly and effectively to restore weak, overworked or diseased kidneys and bladder to healthy, normal condition.

J. E. Simmons, 400 E. 50th St., Portland, Ore., writes: "I was troubled with backache and urinary trouble. I tried Foley Kidney Pills and will say that I highly recommend them to any one troubled in that way, as they are excellent."

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c

HOW TO RAISE BABY CHICKS

Put Avicol in the drinking water.

Most people lose half of every hatch and some to expect it. Chick cholera or white diarrhea is the trouble. The U. S. Government states that over half the chicks hatched die from this cause.

An Avicol tablet placed in the drinking water will positively save your little chicks from all such die causes. Inside of 48 hours the sick ones will be as lively as crickets. Avicol keeps them healthy and makes them grow and develop.

Mrs. Vannie Thacker, R. F. D. 3, St. Paris, O., writes: "I had 90 chicks and they all died but 32. I had commenced on Avicol and haven't lost any since. They have grown wonderfully."

It costs nothing to try Avicol. If you don't find that it prevents and promptly cures white diarrhea, chick cholera and all bowel diseases of poultry, tell us and your money will be refunded by return mail. Avicol is sold by most druggists and poultry remedy dealers. If you can't send 25c or 50c today for a package by mail postpaid, Burrill Dugger Co., 698 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

Daily Market Report

STOCKS EXPERIENCE

FURTHER REVERSAL

New York, April 30.—The stock market experienced its tenth consecutive reversal today, tomorrow's recess for "moving day," with its possible disturbances, involving additional professional selling pressure.

There were other unfavorable developments, however, including reports that the federal reserve board is continuing its firm policy of contracting credits by the means at its command.

The local money market was all but local of time funds, while all loans rose from 8 to 15 per cent, easing to 12 per cent in the national dealings.

Foreign exchange was reactionary, the break in sterling bills being ascribed to heavy offerings of London bills by exporters to meet maturities in this market.

Trading in stocks was smaller than on any previous day of the week. Extreme declines of 2 to 4 points in the various pooled shares, notable steels, motors and oils, were largely recovered by the end, short covering accelerating the rally.

New low records for Liberty bonds, First 4s and Third 4s contributed to the heavier bond market international yielding. Total sales (par value) aggregated 15,700,000.

CORN MAKES

SUBSTANTIAL ADVANCE

Chicago, April 30.—Corn for May delivery climbed today to new high record prices for the year. The chief reason was difficulty which shorts experienced in getting grain to fulfill contracts. The market closed unsettled, 2 1/2 to 5 1/2 cent higher, with May $1.77 to $1.78, and July $1.65 to $1.65 1/2. Oats gained 1/2 to 1/4 cent. It was the last day that unlicensed dealers were allowed the privilege of maintaining open orders in the May delivery, and there were numerous shorts in the corn market who, in the hope that prices would decline, took long chances by waiting until the exchange session was nearly over. The result was a buying flurry at the finish, with a three-cent jump of quotations inside of a few minutes. The month-end covering by shorts proved to be more than an offset for the bearish influence of stock market weakness. Wet weather likely to delay farm work counted as an additional strengthening factor, and the top did bullish sentiment of the winter wheat crop, together with talk of a possible return to war b read.

Oats reached the top-most price ever known for May delivery, $1.08 1/2. Related shorts were the buyers.

Provisions were lifted by the strength of grain.

DUN'S REVIEW

New York, April 30.—Dun's tomorrow will say:

"Impediments to seasonal business development are both varied and far reaching in their influence, and the recent slowing down of conditions has been progressive and practically general.

"Relief from the railroad congestion has permitted resumption of work at some plants, where suspensions had been forced through lack of essential materials, but freight movements are still retarded and production more or less disorganized.

"While the restraint imposed by interrupted transportation alone is sufficient to curtail activities, there are the added elements of present abnormal prices and tightening of money markets and the backward spring in most sections is having no inconsiderable effect in limiting operations. Weekly bank clearings, $7,865,900,492."

CIRCUIT COURT IS TO CONVENE IN MAY

Friday Last Day of Service for Term—Docket Shows Large Number of Cases—Jurors Chosen for First Two Weeks.

The Morgan county circuit court will convene Monday, May 10, with Judge F. W. Burton presiding. Friday was the last day of service and several new cases were filed in the office of Circuit Clerk Boston, and declarations in a number of cases in which the praecipe had already been made a matter of record. It will be quite a busy term, as the total number of cases is above the average. This statement is more applicable to law and chancery cases than to the people's side of the docket. There are, however, 28 people's cases, 15 new and 13 continued cases. There are 45 continued law cases and 23 new cases, making a total of 68.

On the chancery side the total cases is 121, of this number there being 33 continued cases.

Change of Venue Cases

While the people's cases are not all of unusual interest, it is possible there may be two important cases heard on change of venue. It will be remembered that at the November term the jury in the case of Timothy O'Connell, charged with the murder of Edward Lert, disagreed, and another trial may be had this term. State's Attorney Vandewater of Brown county, recently sent to Circuit Clerk Boston for some subpoena forms, indicating that he is getting witnesses ready for the trial of the case at the present term. Since the former hearing Mr. O'Connell has become a resident of Jacksonville.

Attorneys for Dr. Horace Reddish, of Jerseyville, have been in communication with the circuit clerk and state that they will insist that his trial for the murder of Rachel Cisco shall be set down for hearing at this term. Reddish was acquitted at the November term, after a long trial, on the charge of murdering his father. The indictment for the murder of Rachel Cisco is still on the docket, and the defendant and his attorneys wish the matter disposed of at the present term. After the case is set for hearing it will be necessary for the people to go to trial with the case or permit an order of dismissal to be entered.

Jurors Drawn

There will be no criminal cases heard in the first or second weeks, as that these cases, if they come to trial, will be heard at a later date. The jurors summoned for the first and second weeks of the term are as follows:

Alexander—Harold Strawn, John Cockin, Frank Foster.

MISS LOLA ORNELLAS WEDS IN SPRINGFIELD

Former Resident Married to Detroit Man—Will Reside in That City.

Harry A. Barnes of Detroit, Michigan, and Miss Lola Bond Ornelas of Springfield were united in marriage in that city Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. The ceremony was said at St. Agnes Catholic church by the Rev. Father Howard.

The marriage is the culmination of a friendship that began while Miss Ornelas was employed as secretary to the chief of ordinance at explosives in Washington. The groom having returned from overseas service in the naval aviation branch of the service.
The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ornelas of 715 East Cook street, Springfield. The family resided here until about a year ago and she was born and reared here.
After graduating from the Jacksonville high school in the class of 1909, she entered Brown's Business College and graduated there in 1912. She then was employed as head stenographer at Jacksonville State Hospital. From that position she went to Springfield where she was employed in the office of the secretary of state.
During the war she went to Washington where she was employed in the war department. Some months ago she returned to Illinois and was again employed at the state house. She is a young woman of much personal charm and has many friends in this city who will unite in wishing her much happiness.

Mr. Barnes comes from California where he spent most of his life, receiving his education in Riverside. For the past six years he has been employed as a salesman of the National Cash Register Company, with headquarters in Detroit.
After a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Barnes will be at home at 467 Pallister avenue, Detroit.

NOAH ORNELLAS NOW OF ARKANSAS HERE

Noah Ornelas of Stuttgart, central Arkansas, is visiting friends and relatives in and about the city. He gives a glowing account of conditions where he is and as far as money making is concerned, seems to feel he has made a good move though for an all around place of residence he says if you are going to beat this part of Illinois you must go to heaven.

He and his son occupy a half section which they lease and are working 200 acres more. They use tractors hauling a sixteen horse load at once which makes things move. They have some horses but most of the work is done with the tractors. A leading crop is rice which he says is quite profitable. The ground is prepared the same as for wheat and the seed drilled in. Then with force pumps they flood the fields and leave the crop to grow and mature. Irrigation costs about $15 an acre. The wells are not very deep, 40 to 170 feet. They have been using coal engines for pumping, but he says they will soon be having oil engines and electricity which will be a great deal preferable.

C. Rio yields from 50 to 125 bushels to the acre and is threshed as is wheat, the machines getting out 3000 bushels a day. It sells for $3.25 to $3.75 a bushel and Mr. Ornelas says he raised a good crop on a field that had been continuously in cultivation without fertilizing for fifteen years and no seeming diminution in the crop. They cut lots of prairie hay and have all kinds of crops as here. Fruit is also a great article in many parts of the state. There are many northern people where Mr. Ornelas is, Stuttgart being largely settled by them.
